

Online Banking

If you are using the on-line banking services of your financial institution, you may want to use it to pay your City utility and tax accounts. We are currently set up to take payments from CIBC, Innovation Credit Union and the Royal Bank.

Sign onto your on-line bank account, select "Pay bills & transfer funds". Then, on the next screen, select the option for "Add a new payee". Enter "Meadow Lake" as a payee name then click on search.

Add Payee - Step 1

You will be asked for the account number that you are paying. For your tax account, enter the "assessment number" shown on your tax bill. It should be a number much like 505505005.01 for example. If you are required to enter a 9-digit account number, please enter only the first nine digits and do not include the numbers after the decimal point. For Utility Accounts, your account number will be in the form 001-1234567-001. If you are limited to a set number of digits, include only the middle seven digits, with leading zeros as needed.

How to find your utility account number

PLEASE NOTE:

Although on-line banking payments have worked very well for us, there can be errors resulting from people selecting the wrong payee, or keying in a wrong tax or utility account number, or giving us a tax number when they meant to pay their utility bill. If you notice an error, please contact us as soon as possible so we can trace your payment. We will always apply the payment to the account number we receive with the transaction, not the account number we believe you meant.
